Approved For Release 2003/10/01: CIA-RDP79R00890A001200040024-4

25X1

NSC BRIEFING

27 April 1960

CUBA

- I. In Cuba, increasingly complex domestic problems impelling Castro to make scapegoat of US.
  - Α. We expect a new peak on May Day, when Castro plans to stage mass demonstrations and parades of the army and the workers', peasants' and students' militia.
  - A "meeting of democratic political and intellectual В. personalities" of hemisphere also planned for 29 April to 1 May in Havana.
    - "Personalities" include leftist types from many LA countries, some of whom, such as elderly Socialist leader Palacios of Argentina, have considerable prestige at home.
    - 2. Delegation from US includes Carleton Beals (elderly American "expert" on LA who obtained his introduction to Latin America as a draft dodger in Mexico in World War I) and Waldo Frank. Both leftists who helped organize "Fair Play for Cuba Committee" in New York City last month.

			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
25X1

- C. Top Cuban Communists in Peiping for May Day--including Blas Roca, Secretary-General of Party.
- Three Soviet tankers and ten cargo ships have or shortly will D. arrive in Cuban ports, implementing February Cuban-USSR trade deal.

Approved For Release 2003/10/01: CIA-RDP79R00890A001200040024-4

25X1

- 1. Cargo ships to load sugar, but probably bringing Soviet products.
- 2. Tankers bringing both gasoline and crude oil.
- 3. US oil companies with refineries in Cuba expect a demand to process Russian crude.
- E. Cuban government reported to have decreed seizure of sugar mills.
  - 1. expropriation will be made before final sugar sales, thus assuring government proceeds of at least a part of sugar sales.
  - 2. Castro to announce at May Day rally that sugar mills, as well as American-owned electric and telephone companies will be expropriated.
- F. Readers' Digest, which prints Spanish edition in Havana, is thinking of abandoning its plant there.

25X1

25X1